MANNING OF UNITED STATES FLEET TO FULL WAR STRENGTH IMPORTANT

Six-Point Programme Of Mr. C. Swanson INCREASE IN WARPLANES Improved Facilities For Training Naval Reserves

Washington, November 20.
That it is "highly important" that the Fleet should be manned as soon as possible to full war strength is the recommendation of the Secretary of the Navy, Mr. Claude A. Swanson, in his annual report.

Mr. Swanson declares that there is a necessity that the Navy should be immediately available in an emergency due to the "present disturbed international conditions," and points out that submarines are the only craft at present fully manned.

U.S. PRAYERS FOR PEOPLE IN DIRE DISTRESS

New York, Nov. 20.
"It is fitting that we should offer prayers for unfortunate people in other lands, who are in dire distress, at this our Thanksgiving season," says President Roosevelt in his annual Thanksgiving Day proclamation.
The President declares that the United States had "ample cause to be thankful" for peace, between other blessings. "We lived in peace and understanding with our neighbours and saw the world escape from the impending disaster of a general war,"—Reuter.

The Fleet, he says, must be prepared to execute, at short notice, its most vital function, namely, to keep war at a distance from American shores and defeat the enemy at sea.

A six-point programme is put forward by Mr. Swanson, who recommends, inter alia, additional replacements for auxiliaries, creation of a modern, fast and efficiently manned merchant marine. Construction of larger battleships is also hinted in the report.

"Our naval auxiliaries are only slightly improved, despite new construction," says Mr. Swanson, dealing with the first of the six points.
The creation of a merchant marine is described as a "measure of great importance to national security."

AIRCRAFT TENDERS
The third point in the programme is expressed in the words: "With naval expansion programme in the immediate prospects, there is necessity for an increase in the number of aircraft tenders, and the development of adequate shore facilities for aircraft is one of the inescapable requisites for its realisation."
The fourth point is that additional or improved facilities are needed for training naval reserves.

The fifth point is that the Marine Corps, which at present numbers 17,000 men, "should have sufficient personnel to provide for the necessary marine detachments and guards for new ships for expanding naval activities and to carry out missions assigned by the Navy in its plan."

SHORE DEVELOPMENT
The sixth point says that an authorised increase in the Navy's fleet "necessitates a further shore development programme of a considerable magnitude which must be presented by prescribed channels."
Apart from men, America's expanding navy requires additional officers and "an orderly ship construction programme" and warship construction towards the authorised 20 per cent increase in the total tonnage, remarks Mr. Swanson.

His hint of new large battleships comes when he notes that the London Naval Treaty of 1936 has been amended to permit 45,000 ton ships.
Mr. Swanson adds: "Recommendations will be made in the coming year as to the tonnage of our future battleships which will best meet the needs of national security."

AVERAGE ALLOWANCE
The present number of men enlisted in the Navy is 105,000, which is a permitted average allowance for all ships of only 85.3 per cent according to the report.

In the fiscal year, the Navy operated 347 vessels of all types and twenty-seven new craft, including five light cruisers. Twelve destroyers were commissioned and 70 were actually under construction.

On June 30 this year, 100 vessels were being built, for which appropriations have been made. This says the report, is a greater number than any other Power's although Britain's 98 new ships are larger.
On the same date, the U.S. Navy had 1,390 first line warplanes, 115 obsolescent and 642 under order, being an increase of 205 on hand on under construction within the year.—Reuter.

Chinese Courts Have Jurisdiction Over Spanish Cases

Shanghai, November 20.
Holding that the Chinese Courts have jurisdiction over Spanish cases the First Special District Court yesterday awarded to the China Realty Company (Fed. Inc. U. S. A.) judgment for $700,000 (Chinese dollars) plus interest and costs, against the Augustian Procurations.

NEW WARFARE TACTICS

Chungking, Nov. 20.
Wide powers have been given to the various war area commanders in order to enable them to take swift action in accordance with the Chinese Government's new mobile warfare tactics, according to Chinese press reports.—Reuter.

In the course of a protracted legal battle, the Chinese Judge, Li, ruled that the Sino-Spanish Treaty of Extrajurisdictionality was no longer applicable since Spain's consular representatives had withdrawn from China.
The suit involved the mortgage of a piece of land in Pootung. The Spanish fathers were co-defendants with the China Motion Picture Finance Corporation.—Reuter.

H.K. AID FOR JEWS

Refugees On Way To Shanghai

The S.S. Conte Verde will arrive from Europe to-morrow with a group of Jewish refugees aboard en route to Shanghai in an attempt to re-establish their business and personal lives after the events of the past month in Central Europe.

The Jewish community in the Colony, headed by Mr. Lawrence Kadoorie and Mr. E. M. Raymond, have gathered together and are securing funds for the temporary support and assistance of these unfortunate people.

A representative of this group will meet the travellers upon their arrival in Hongkong. Their wants and problems will be discussed and the courtesy and assistance of the Jewish community here and in the North will be extended to them.

A few of these refugees will disembark in Hongkong but the vast majority will continue on to Shanghai.

DEATH OF QUEEN OF NORWAY

AUNT OF KING GEORGE VI

London, Nov. 20.
The death occurred this morning of Queen Maud of Norway, after a long illness, in her 69th year.

Only surviving child of the late King Edward VII, Her Majesty was born on November 26, 1869, and on July 22, 1896, she married H.R.H. Prince, Christian Frederik Carl George Valdemar Axel of Norway (now King Haakon VII of Norway). Queen Maud is a Dame Grand Cross of the Sovereign Order of Malta was made a Dame Grand Cross of the Royal Victorian Order in 1937.

Queen Maud is the aunt of King George VI and has one son, Crown Prince Olaf of Norway, who was born on July 2, 1903. In 1929 he married Princess Martha of Sweden.—Reuter and Special.

HEART FAILURE

London, Nov. 20.
According to a communiqué issued by specialists the Queen died of heart failure "without previous warning" and King Haakon who has been staying at Buckingham Palace was unable to get to her bedside in time. The Queen died in her sleep with only a nurse present.

News of her death was conveyed to Their Majesties who are spending the week-end at St. Paul's, Walden, near Hitchin, with the Queen's brother the Hon. David Bowes Lyon, and the King later talked to his uncle, King Haakon. Queen Maud was an English Princess and possibly she may be buried in this country but no arrangements have yet been made.—Reuter.

PROFOUND SORROW

Oslo, Nov. 20.
The Queen's death has caused profound sorrow in Norway where the news was quite unexpected as everybody had hoped the Queen would survive after the first encouraging reports from London. Declarations from all quarters stress the sympathy and love in which Queen was held everywhere. A Cabinet meeting was held this afternoon and Crown Prince Olaf is leaving for London to-night.—Reuter.

BRITISH ENVOY AT WHITEHOUSE

Washington, Nov. 20.
The British Ambassador, Sir Ronald Lindsay, unexpectedly called at the Whitehouse late this afternoon.—Reuter.

U.S. To Talk Language Of Dictators

EMBARKING ON NEW POLICIES

New York, Nov. 20.
That the United States is about to embark on new international and home policies of historical importance is the opinion of some of the nation's most prominent industrial leaders, according to the Associated Press, which says that these leaders claim to have knowledge of the Administration's plans.

In place of "sweet reason," one industrialist is reported to have said that the United States will henceforth "talk the language of dictators."

Industrialists visualise the Government's future programme to be:

1. An army, navy and air force which "could stand off the world";
2. An international diplomatic drive to "put starch into the democracies in order to block totalitarian encroachments, and
3. A swift drive to end unemployment and labour strife and other economic troubles in the United States.

Industrialists are of the opinion that the United States is always willing to play the leading role in disarmament when other nations are ready.—Reuter.

ORIENTATION OF FOREIGN POLICY URGED

Washington, Nov. 20.
A new and vigorous orientation of foreign policy is being urged upon President Roosevelt by certain Leftist advisers.
Proposals are being put forward, firstly, that the President should consider economic retaliation not only against Germany but against Japan, whose reply yesterday to the U.S. Note is regarded as

PRECAUTIONARY PERIOD FOR BLACK-OUT

The practice air raid Precautionary Period commences at 10 p.m. to-night, and the public is advised to prepare blacking-out plans.

slamming the Open Door in China; secondly, that sovereign rights should be restored to the Spanish (Barcelona) Government; thirdly, that the President should make a complimentary gesture towards Catholicism by establishing diplomatic relations with the Vatican.
Whether the President leans towards these counsels, which are designed to give him unquestioned leadership of the world's democracies, cannot at present be ascertained.

It would not be fair to label the individuals responsible for such advice, but the President's most liberal advisers are known to be the State Department officials, Messrs. H. Ickes, Minister for Interior, Hopkins and Berle and two young lawyers, Messrs. Corcoran and Cohen, who help to draft presidential policy.—Reuter.

SIR ARCHIBALD CLARK KERR IN COLONY

Sir Archibald Clark Kerr, British Ambassador to China, arrived in Hongkong from Chungking by a C.N.A.C. plane on Saturday night, and is a guest at Government House.
The British Ambassador will leave for Shanghai aboard the Italian liner Conte Rosso on Tuesday, says "Central News."
His Excellency was recently in Chungking where he had a conference with Generalissimo Chiang Kai-shek.

TWO THOUSAND PERISH IN CHANGSHA FIRE Big Government Vote For Relief Of Homeless

Chungking, November 20.
TWO THOUSAND PERSONS PERISHED in the five-day conflagration which practically razed Changsha last week according to semi-official reports received here. The Chinese Government is said to have appropriated $500,000 for the relief of the homeless in the Hunan capital whither police and gendarmes have returned to maintain order.

Over 70 men and women workers belonging to the political department in the Wuhan war area are also reported to have reached Changsha under the order of General Chen Chen, who is directing operations on the south bank of the Yangtze, in order to supervise the burial of the dead.

A temporary market place, Chinese reports state, has been opened with three meat and two vegetable stalls.

The famous Chinese communist leader, Chow Wen-lai, who was at first thought to have perished in the fire is now said to be safe in Changsha. He fled when the flames reached the windows of his bedroom.

As soon as he heard about the fire in Changsha while directing operations at the front, General Chen Chen is reported to have instructed a certain army corps commander to act concurrently as the Changsha garrison commander to maintain peace and order and to restore communications.—Reuter.

CAUSE OF FIRE
Chungking, Nov. 20.
Circumstances leading to the five-day disastrous conflagration in Changsha, capital of Hunan province, which practically razed the city to the ground are revealed in a statement issued jointly by the Central Publicity Council and the Political Board to-day.

According to the statement, the fire was caused by misinformation of the approach of the Japanese invaders.
Appreciation of the help rendered by foreign residents in Changsha in refugee investigation and relief work is expressed in the statement.—Central News.

CHINESE BOMBERS ACTIVE

Chungking, Nov. 20.
Heavy damage was done to the railway bridge near the Sinking station on the Nanking-Shanghai Railway, about 57 miles east of Nanking, during an air raid staged by a squadron of Chinese bombers at midnight on November 18, according to a Shanghai message.—Central News.

SHARP ATTACK ON LORD ZETLAND

Berlin, Nov. 20.
A sharp attack has been made on the Marquis of Zetland, Secretary for India, by the German News Agency regarding his recent speech.
The report, which is headed, "British Interference with German Domestic Politics," charges Lord Zetland with complete lack of understanding of the spontaneous danger of the action of the entire German people against the new provocation of world Jewry.—Reuter.

JAPANESE ADVANCE CHECKED

Milo, Hunan, Nov. 20.
The Japanese driving southward along the Canton-Hankow Railway are held in check in the hilly regions immediately south of Yoyang, stated General Chen Cheng, Chairman of the Hubei Provincial Government and Director of the Political Board of the Military Headquarters, when questioned by a Central News representative on the war situation yesterday.
The Japanese driving down the Nanchang-Kiukiang Railway, General Chen added, are halted on the north bank of the Siu River to the south of Tehan.—Central News.

BRITISH TROOPS' BUSY WEEK IN PALESTINE Known Arab Terrorists Among Detained

Jerusalem, Nov. 20.
British troops in Palestine had a busy week combating villages for terrorists and illegal stocks of arms and ammunition. Altogether, 300 villages were searched and 800 Arabs were detained, 32 rifles, five revolvers and a large quantity of ammunition and equipment being seized.

Some of the Arabs detained are known terrorists.

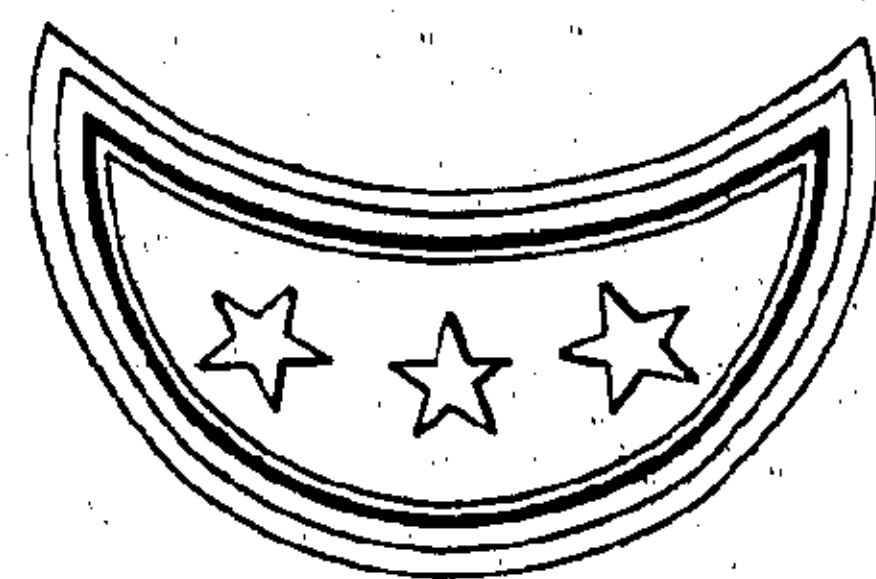

Three British soldiers were killed and eight wounded in the course of several successful field operations, in which heavy casualties were inflicted on the rebels.
According to Arab sources, Abdul Kader Hussein, cousin of the Grand Mufti, was wounded in an engagement between an Arab band and British soldiers in the north region on Thursday night.—Reuter.

GUARDSMAN KILLED

Jerusalem, Nov. 20.
One Coldstream Guardsman was killed and six were wounded when a detachment routed a large band of Arabs in a fierce fight north of Bebrun yesterday.
The Guardsmen were returning from reconnaissance and encountered heavy fire. They took up positions without firing, where

JAPANESE CADETS

Shanghai Nov. 20.
Three hundred and twenty-one cadets of the Japanese Naval Training Squadron will arrive here to-morrow afternoon on board the veteran cruisers Iwate and Yakumo, a naval spokesman announced to-day.
The cadets, under Vice-Admiral Tanimoto, will tour the battle areas before leaving for Formosa on Friday afternoon.—Reuter.

ONLY A BOY'S "BULLET"

A report appearing on Saturday morning of mysterious bullets flying in Nathan Road, in the vicinity of the Nathan Hotel, turned out to be an exaggeration on enquiries being made by the "Daily Press" at Yau-mat Police Station.

It was revealed that the "bullets" were nothing more than some "missiles" which had apparently been "fired" from a catapult by some mischievous youngster with a misguided sense of humour from a passing vehicle.

RELIEF STORES FOR CANTON REFUGEES

Steamer Leaving On Wednesday

The China Navigation Company s.s. Wuchang (Capt. Green) will leave Hongkong on Wednesday with a cargo of stores for refugees in Canton. Permission has been obtained from the Japanese naval authorities for the ship to proceed up the Pearl River.

Its cargo will consist of foodstuffs and stores which will be used for the large number of starving and destitute Chinese remaining in the former Kwangtung capital.

The ship has been chartered by the British Fund for the Relief of Distress in China, which on Saturday issued an appeal in Hongkong for gifts to aid in its work in Canton.

The appeal, signed by the Bishop of Hongkong, Rt. Rev. Ronald Hall, asks for donations of the following:

- 5,000 padded quilts.
- 2,000 blankets.
- 5,000 sets warm clothing.
- 5,000 woollen garments for children.
- 5,000 lbs. knitting wool.
- 500 bales of cloth.
- 1,000 piculs of beans.
- 5,000 piculs of rice.

In addition, large quantities of salt fish and salt vegetables are urgently required.

Donations of money may be sent direct to the Treasurer of the appeal. Notices of gifts in kind may be sent to the Emergency Relief Council, Gloucester Hotel (Telephone 33400), which will arrange for shipment.

50,000 AFFECTED
Bishop Hall, in issuing the appeal on behalf of the British Fund revealed that there are nearly 50,000 men, women and children in Canton without means of livelihood.

Fifteen thousand Chinese are living in the four refugee camps.

In connection with the appeal, the Chinese Government has donated the sum of $150,000.

Japanese military authorities in Canton have donated a supply of rice.

The donations already received are, however, insufficient for the urgent needs of the British Fund, and the Hongkong public has been earnestly requested, in the appeal issued yesterday morning, to meet the requirements listed above.

SAILORS MISSING AFTER ACCIDENT

FORFED DEPARTMENT
Commander D. P. Cather is to join the staff of the Torpedoes and Mining Department, Admiralty, in succession to Commander E. V. Jeffries.

CRUISE OF THE MILFORD
The escort vessel Milford, which has been cruising on the West Coast of Africa since the beginning of September, is on her way back to Simonstown. She will visit Elephant Bay, November 24-28, and Walvis Bay, December 1-3, returning to Simonstown on December 7. Because of the illness of Captain P. L. B. Cunliffe, Commander H. Dalrymple-Smith, from the flagship Amphion, has been in temporary command of the Milford on this cruise, and Lieutenant-Commander R. R. Airey, gunnery officer of the flagship, has been given acting rank as commander for duty as executive officer of that ship.

Malaria is rife in these parts. Even the mission hospitals are experiencing a shortage of quinine. The price of one tablet is 8 cents National Currency. We are badly in need of this. We feel also the need of transport for supplies the rear up to the front and have to rely on the time honoured methods in China, wheel-barrow, carrier and sampan.

Surgeon General Cheung Kin had everything well planned. He already had ten main base hospitals established in Kwang-chow. These had been prepared several months ago and he is now carrying out the organization of following up the forces advancing towards Canton. He narrowly escaped death at Tsung Fa while working near the front line trenches.

HONGKONG AND SAN FRANCISCO FAIR

Important Choice Of "Miss China"

The representative and agents of the San Francisco Fair which opens in that city by the Golden Gate in February next year are making successful headway in reservations and the all-important selection of "Miss China" who will act as hostess for this occasion.

Five stores representing Hongkong will be allotted space in the Chinese City of the Fair. Thus far four applications have been received which include Lock Ring Curio Shop, Chinese Native Product Company, China Rubber Company and Mr. D. H. Lau, of the Kowloon Linen Shop, has made a request for 192 to 222 square feet of space.

Mr. K. T. Fong, who is doing a great deal in the interest of the Fair, reports he has secured a "Punch and Judy" Show, Dragon Dance and a Lion Dance, which will be sent on to the Fair.

There are many young ladies anxious to represent their country in America during the Fair. To date twenty applications have been received. However, they are mainly from Shanghai girls who have been living in the Colony since the war activities in the North.

The exact date of the selection of young ladies for this position has not been announced but it is understood that it will take place in the early part of December.

MUSICAL REVIEW OF THE WEEK

BY "ALLEGRO MODERATO"

Mr. Lindsay Lafford gave a delightful organ recital from St. John's Cathedral last Sunday. His programme included Fantasia (Saint Saens), Choral Prelude (Karg-Elert) and Prelude and Fugue in B Minor (Bach). Lafford's forte in organ music seems to be compositions by Bach, to whom he shows a deep understanding. His phrasing is excellent.

On Wednesday, the highlights of the programme from ZBW were selections from Verdi's operas. Professor Harry Ore at the piano and the relay of "In Town Tonight".

Of the local programmes, Professor Ore's programme was certainly competitive and interesting. It included, firstly the Polonaise in E Flat Minor and the Etude in E, both by Chopin. Legend, "St. Francis Paulus Marching on the Waves" by Liszt, Intermezzo in E by Cyril Scott, "Et la lune descend sur le temple qui fut" by Debussy, "Song of Sorrow," Cantonese Song (his own arrangement), and an American pioneer song by Grainger, "Spoon-River." The most interesting piece in the recital was the "Song of Sorrow" from the Cantonese. Ore seems to have captured the "real Chinese" in this number, and transmits it through the medium of the piano. It is seldom that a foreigner is able to do this—it is decidedly an artistic feat of a very high order.

Helen Lockhart, contralto, sang on Thursday, sharing honours with the ZBW Orchestra. This artist shows an almost flawless technical delivery, but her interpretations are so very dull. Her programme most certainly did not provide scope for more colourful singing. Perhaps a more generous choice of songs would make a change.

On Friday night, Gaston d'Aquino gave an Italian recital with E. O'Neill Shaw at the piano. The two operatic arias sung were not up to the usual standard, and the pianist did not give him the vigorous support necessary to "put over" opera.

O'Neill Shaw's contribution of Rubinstein's Barcarolle was pleasant. The three classical arias sung by d'Aquino to close the recital, "Cangia cangia" (Fasolo), "Star vicino" (Savator Rosa) and "Caro mio ben" (Giordani), were comparatively better, although at the end the singer showed that he was tired after his earlier efforts. His breathing was faulty.

The Hongkong Singers have lost no time getting back to work. We hear that they have begun working for their next concert, which will take place early in 1939 and will include works by Dyson, Farry and Darke. It looks as if it will be an interesting concert.

The Choral Group is getting in trim for another concert, in the style of that held in the Kowloon Tong Club earlier this year. They also wish to make known that anyone interested may go to the practices any Thursday evening at 8 p.m. and to register his or her name with the Honorary Secretary. The school gathers at the studio of Maestro Gualdi, No. 225, Nathan Road, Kowloon. There is no membership fee. At the present moment the group finds itself with a deficiency of contraltos.

KOWLOON UNION CHURCH SALE OF WORK

Many Ladies' Guilds of the various churches are now arranging sales of work for Church charities and various other activities for the needy.

On Saturday afternoon one of the largest and most attractive Church sales of work took place thus far this season. The Women's Guild of the Kowloon Union Church sponsored the occasion.

Mrs. B. Wylie opened the sale which was attended by a large group of women and children. Games of chance and skill were well patronised. Baby garments, books, needle work, unusual and useful gadgets were for sale. The large selection of colourful sweaters, and most of them hand knit were selling very well. And, of course, the housewives were besieging the booth selling home-made preserves, cookies, candy cakes and various fancy canned goods.

Several items were of interest to the younger generation such as books, crayons, pictures, art works, cards and hand-work.

Tea was served at four o'clock to a large group of the attending guests who had a very pleasant social afternoon among their friends and neighbours.

FORTHCOMING WEDDINGS

The following forthcoming marriages are announced:—

Chan Yuk-lun, alias Chin Wuk-hlyn, student, residing at No. 17, Cheungshawan Road, Shumshupo, to Miss Lau Yung-tai of the same address.

Mr. Alfred Fung Kwok-hing, undergraduate, Lingnan University residing at No. 13, Observatory Road, Kowloon, to Miss Anna Seto Fung, Yee, undergraduate of the Lingnan University, residing at No. 59, Cumberland Road, Kowloon Tong.

THREE CHINESE WEDDINGS

Three Chinese weddings were solemnised before the Deputy Registrar of Marriages, Mr. T. J. Gould on Saturday.

Mr. Leung Lai-fa, teacher of the Tung Chi English College residing at 115, Thomson Road, Hongkong, was married to Miss Tsoi Wai-yin of 104, Tung Choi Street, ground floor, Mongkok. Witnesses of the ceremony were Messrs. Leung Man-yuen and K. S. Leung; Mr. Lo Tsz-shing, mercantile assistant residing at 14, Fleming Road, second floor, was married to Miss Chan Yu-hing of 258, Lockhart Road, second floor; Mr. Woo Koon-pi, military officer of the Chinese Central Army, residing at 77, Fuk Wah Street, first floor, Shumshupo, to Miss Chan Shuk-ching of 43, Des Voeux Rd. West, third floor.

CHARITY CONCERT

A successful concert was held at St. Stephen's Girls' College on Saturday evening in aid of the Hongkong School For The Deaf, which was founded in September, 1935.

The concert was organised by the staff of the School, headed by the Principal, Miss L. W. Li, and among those who contributed towards its success were Miss Elvie Yuen, Miss C. Braga, Miss G. Scull and Mr. M. Barton.

OLD PRIESTLEYANS' TIE

Not content with writing 18 plays in the seven years since he turned dramatist, Mr. J. B. Priestley, whose latest comedy, "When We Are Married," opened at the St. Martin's recently, is now dabbling in dress design.

He is limiting his new field of activity to designing a tie. At present he has not yet definitely determined the colour scheme. He has, however, decided who may wear it.

The tie is to be awarded to any actor who appears in three of Mr. Priestley's plays. For the purpose of defining an Old Priestleyan, only West End productions are counted.

One of the first eligible tie-wearers is Mr. Raymond Huntley. He is in the new play and also played in "Cornelius" and "Time and the Conways." Another

An appeal to the United States Government for immediate action against Japan was wired to Washington by the American community in Hankow on November 15. The wire pointed out the fact that Japanese restrictions in Hankow have rendered the transaction of foreign trade in China impossible.

Kowloon Cricket Club held one of their most successful dances on Saturday night when over 250 people attended. The Dance Band of Royal Scots, by kind permission of the Commanding Officer and Officers, rendered a fine programme of dance music, and the Lambeth Walk proved a tremendous hit. There were also two spot dances.

The servicemen's concert at the European Y.M.C.A. on Saturday was well attended, the programme arranged being both varied and entertaining. Members of the H.M.S. Eagle concert party entertained, including Flight Sergeant Blow (baritone), George Rees (male soprano), P. O. Dolmore and Bob Ellis provided the comic element. Other artists were Hector Wiggins (tenor), P. Harvey and his ac-cordian, and G. Bennett.

SWIMMING POOL FOR PRINCESSES

When Princess Elizabeth and Princess Margaret returned from Balmoral with the King and Queen they found a surprise awaiting them in the grounds of Buckingham Palace.

It is a new swimming pool, which is being specially constructed for the Princesses so that next year they may have their weekly swimming lessons at their own home.

While the Court has been in Scotland, workmen have been constructing the pool, which is full-sized, and has concrete bottom and walls. Now they are engaged on the final process of tiling.

Princess Elizabeth, who has been having lessons for about three years, is already a good swimmer, and this year she passed her test for a life-saving certificate. Princess Margaret, though she has not been learning for so long, has also made good progress.

Round About

The big steamer from Shanghai was due early in the morning. People stood on the pier waiting for its arrival. In the wharf office, an elderly gentleman inquired the time of docking. On being informed the time, he instantly demanded of the officer in charge if he was absolutely positive of the hour?

After being reassured several times, he shuffled off to the pier. Constantly peering down the bay he slowly trots up and down the wharf. The steamer is late, half hour to an hour—still the elderly man walked and looked, and asked the arrival time of any uniformed official he met on his way.

Finally, around the bend of the bay, the ship appeared. A smile appeared on the man's face. The gangway is lowered, and up he makes his way to the purser's office. The passenger list is produced and scanned. Disappointment and horror take hold of the gentleman, who demands of the purser: "Where is my Martha, why did you not bring her?"

is Mr. Ralph Richardson, who was in "Cornelius," "Bees on the Boat-deck" and "Eden End."

CHINA BREAK-UP
MOVE

AS WITH SPAIN, Central Europe and the North Sea, British intervention has been active in China where a new effort has been made, through H.M. Ambassador, Sir Archibald Kerr Clark Kerr, to test the possibilities once again of effecting a break-up of the Chinese Government and securing at least a sufficient number of discouraged, defeatist and treacherous elements to form the nucleus of a new push to "liquidate" China's resistance. They are looking for a Chinese "Hodza," is how it was aptly put by one observer.

Reports from Chungking and other points in China suggest that the rejection of such efforts by the Chinese Government is a foregone conclusion, although, naturally, it will be possible for the British, Germans and Japanese to effect a certain amount of disruption and damage.

First-hand reports on the fall of Canton show that due weight was not given to the principal factor in the loss, and thus CANTON'S over-emphasized the possibilities of treachery or "collapse of morale." The central reason for the fall of Canton—or at least for the rapidity of its fall—is of considerable significance.

THE CHINESE HAD BASED their entire defence strategy, so far as Canton was concerned, upon the assumption—backed with what seemed to be hard and fast information from British and Japanese sources—that the invaders would not dare, and the British would not permit, a landing very near to Hongkong. It seems indeed that for a considerable period this really was "the situation; and that fears of "complications" with the British prevented such a landing being carried out. The Chinese had, therefore, concentrated their main forces in the direction of Swatow, assuming that the point at which the landing actually was made was, as it were, "neutralized" by the British.

There are two versions of what finally changed the situation: one is that the British Government, in pursuit of the general policy of support for the Japanese aims, subsequently outlined by the Prime Minister, Mr. Neville Chamberlain, actually informed the Japanese, in response TWO to queries, that there VERSIONS would be "no objection" to a landing at a point near Hongkong.

THE OTHER is that, following the overwhelming Axis victory at Munich, the Japanese felt themselves and their allies strong enough to risk any "complications" that might ensue in the certainty that the British Government would be neither willing nor—since it was evidently rejecting its only possible allies in the Far East—able "to do anything about it."

The fact that "The Times" (or "Cliveden's Neueste Nachrichten," as it is called by unkind critics) went out of its way thoughtfully to deny any connexion between events at Munich and events at the Far Eastern end of the Axis may, of course, be interpreted in several ways.

Up to the moment of writing, "no information" is available at the Foreign Office as to what, if anything, is being done about the BRITAIN'S British business community at Shanghai, which called its protest to the Whitehall against the Far Eastern policy expressed in Mr. Chamberlain's recent speech. The only activity to date is some considerable deprecating and deploring by the best people of the application of the phrase "smug complacency" to the Prime Minister's address, as being in the worst possible taste, and just that sort of thing that is very definitely "not helpful" to Sir Horace Wilson.

For the theft of a quantity of hardware from the Royal Engineers Store in Queen's Road East, Chan Yu-chi was sentenced to three months' hard labour by Mr. R.A.D. Forrest at Central Magistracy on Saturday.

Hello & Goodbye

—BY A.W. HYER—

Ferrying across the harbour you see large and small ships swinging at their buoys. Glancing at the Kowloon piers you see vessels securely tied to the wharves. And do you realize what a cosmopolitan port you all live in?

Ah! champagne Française, Italian spaghetti, Japanese beer and other special Canadian and English dishes can be relished in their native atmosphere all in one evening of calling on these vessels.

This past week-end we had a little bit of French, English, Italian, Canadian and Japanese. What more could you want for varied interest, and some of the people find our delightful Colony dull.

Air France

A VERY GOOD BUSINESS this air line is doing these days. The Ville de Saigon, under the control of Captain H. Gombade, departed from Kai Tak for Hanoi with a full list of 12 passengers on Saturday at 6.40 a.m.

Mr. F. Martin, Air France's number one in Hanoi and Indo-China certainly is a commuter to our fair city. Every month he comes in for a "look-see" and hello. Off he departed for southern affairs on Saturday.

The early hour of the day did not affect the two-months-old Miss Springweller who boarded the plane for Indo-China with her mother, Mrs. R. Springweller. The two of them are travelling to meet papa, who is connected with the China National Aviation Corporation and working in North China.

Gay and excited about their proposed air journey were Mr. and Mrs. F. Wilhelm and their young daughter Miss N. Wilhelm. A trip from Shanghai and the visit here were all highly interesting and they were looking forward to their call in Hanoi.

Mr. R. B. Landis and Mr. M. W. P. Paley who were other passengers appeared grumpy, sleepy and anxious to be off.

Imperial Airways.

OF LATE, WE HAVE NOT mentioned the comings and goings of this company's aircraft. But they have been dashing in and out of Kai Tak, a bit handicapped with only two planes, but keeping well on time.

On Saturday the "Delphinus" landed at Kai Tak at 4 p.m., the pilot being Capt. Joe Davies. Arriving on the same plane with a huge grey box and a rather cold stare on his face was Mr. G. W. Bird, another Imperial Airways' plane to furnish musical entertainment in his new restaurant here, the Parisian Grill. Four talented artists will be here next week to provide diners with song and dance notes as they enjoy the new Grill and its menu. Lots of success for you!

A very serious young gentleman connected with Jardine, Matheson and Co., Ltd., Mr. H. D. M. Barton came down from Shanghai. We are sure he will be more than welcome here.

And there was Mr. T. L. Krescny, of Siemens Company, Shanghai, who hurried off the boat and across the bay. Welcome!

Teukuni Maru

OFF FOR JAPAN after a call of a few hours went this comfortable and up-to-date Japanese boat on Friday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. MacGregor were headed for a visit in Shanghai and expect to be returning shortly.

Mr. K. Von Graffen was another passenger for Shanghai and Mr. E. H. Brunner departed for Kobe. The latter is keenly interested in history and is making a study of the various countries and their people to be presented in book form, styled in a fictional and historical story.

Commencing in the new year, the large passenger vessels of the N.Y.K. Line will be coming in our harbouring. That is good news for us all.

Empress of Asia

FRIDAY, 8.30 A.M. in came this comfortable Canadian "Pacific" steamer from Shanghai. Not overflowing with passengers but plenty of interesting and nice people aboard.

To enjoy a vacation, he prays, came Mr. Eric Mayell, well-known Fox Movietone photographer. Down from Shanghai on the Empress he was greeted by the Mrs., just out from San Francisco. It was a joyous reunion after fifteen months.

Mr. Mayell was on the spot in Hanoi for the past couple of months and reports newsreels of great interest regarding the happenings in that city lately.

The nice Mr. G. E. Costello, General Passenger Agent for Canadian Pacific, came back from a short visit to Shanghai. He, too, joins the Commuter Club of the Colony. Welcome!

Returning to their many friends, business and the general goings-on, where they have indeed been missed, arrived Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Edmondston of the Hongkong and Shanghai Banking Corporation who have been visiting their home hearth for the past months. Greetings!

"Dan Cupid" brought a delightful present to Mr. Clerk Lee of the Associated Press when his fiancée Princess L. Kawanakao arrived from Honolulu aboard the Empress of Asia. No definite date has been announced for the marriage. However, may we wish you all the best!

Mr. G. T. Krainakov slipped into town on the Empress, another news photographer, thought he was going to get by us! You should know better. Though we have not been able to find out why, and for how long you will be among us, it is welcome!

G. H. Fowler and W. Muir, of the Central British Association, sustained unfortunate injuries when playing in a League Softball match against the Filipino Club at King's Park yesterday. In the course of the game Fowler was hit on the nose by the ball and this caused bleeding while Muir was hit in the face by a bat. The latter's injury necessitated his being sent to hospital for treatment.

The Filipinos won by 16 runs to one.

The Canadian Chinese defeated the Hongkong Baseball Club by three runs to two in a very close encounter.

OPEN LETTER TO MR.
CHAMBERLAIN—IIBritain's Peace Policy:
Munich And U.S.S.R.:
Attitude Toward China

The following is a continuation of the open letter addressed by Mr. Eugene Chen, former Chinese Foreign Minister, to Mr. Neville Chamberlain, the Prime Minister, with reference to Britain's peace policy in relation to China under invasion and Soviet foreign policy:—

Be this as it may, it is a fact that Soviet Russia was ignored throughout the late crisis in Europe. You have explained that this was a necessity because, Herr Hitler would not have talked with you and Monsieur Daladier if Soviet Russia in the person, for instance, of Mr. Litvinoff had been at your side. This is true. Herr Hitler knew that he could not have dictated the page of history written at Munich if Anglo-French war-power had been reinforced by Soviet war-power. The latter is a reality recognized by the German High Command. The Soviet "purges" have strengthened not weakened the great giant that stands armed and watches sleeplessly in the East. Soviet leadership has been no more weakened by its "purges" than Nazi leadership has been by its own party and military "purges" in 1934 and 1937.

You want peace. As a trained business man, you desire it because trade can only thrive in a state of peace. Since the Czech question menaced peace in Europe, it became a vital British interest to solve it peacefully. A peaceful solution was possible in one of two ways: Submit to Herr Hitler and dismember the Czech State or stand up to him with Soviet Russia at the side of Britain and France. You preferred not to have Soviet Russia at your side. But your choice involved something graver than the dismemberment of a small Power in the centre of Europe.

BRITISH EXTERNAL SECURITY

You have endangered the historic basis of British external security. For three hundred years British statesmanship has opposed the domination of Continental Europe by any one Power. To sustain this opposition, English treasure has been spent and Englishmen have fought and died. You have since realised this major consequence of Munich; and therefore you have not only to continue but vastly to increase the scale and magnitude of British rearmament.

I fear that British rearmament, even with French rearmament, can never master Nazi war-power especially if the latter is reinforced by Fascist war-power in Europe and Japanese war-power in Asia. You cannot do it without the assistance of Soviet war-power. Even American war-power could not be a substitute for Soviet war-power if Chinese man-power and material resources should be under the control and mobilization of Militarist Japan as a result of Anglo-American abandonment of China in her unequal conflict with the Great Power that is tearing at her very vitals. This is not an idle possibility; it might be a certainty should despair replace courage in the heart of a China betrayed by the West on whose pledged words she turned for security. I must not be misunderstood. I indicate a possible consequence of the complete betrayal of China by the democracies of Europe and America.

MEANING OF THE INVASION

But the present war of invasion is a totalitarian operation whose purpose is the extinction of China as a member of the modern system of nations and her incorporation within the Japanese Empire. China is to share the fate of Korea. "Henceforth, the end of war," wrote Marshal Petain not long before the Japanese onset last year, "appears in its entire fullness and cruel distinctness: it is no longer the destruction of an army but of a nation." This dictum of the great Captain is confirmed by your recognition of Signor Mussolini's work in Abyssinia.

The time envisaged by you must come but, without some immediate external help, the "government" of the China which you promise to assist will be a Japanese organ masked in the long gowns of puppet Chinese and "its people" will be the slaves, politically and economically, of a Great Power whose soul is feudal but with hands, war-stained hands grasping the modern and scientific means of satisfying appetites and ambitions which are a denial of the international order for which England stands. To envisage financing the rehabilitation and re-equipment of such a "China, its government and its people" must mean that Britain was looking to lend money to Japan to enable her to complete her domination of China.

COLONY'S FILM
FUTURE

Whether Hongkong has become the film capital of Asia, supplanting Shanghai, is still a matter of doubt, but the fact that the United Artists' masterpiece, "Adventures of Marco Polo," had its China premiere in the Colony might indicate the cinema's growth there, says the "North China Daily News."

Captain C. L. Edwards R.N. smiled and said he last but not least was going to "give Manila the once-over" too.

SPANISH WAR

EBRO BATTLE NOW OVER,
FRONTIERS REMAIN SAMEHundred Thousand Men
Killed And Wounded

Saragossa, November 20.
It can now be established that the three-and-a-half months' Ebro battle, which is now definitely over, has left the frontiers between the two zones exactly as they were on July 24 when the battle opened and Spain is poorer by 100,000 men killed and wounded.

The Republicans claim a victory because General Franco is no nearer to Valencia but the Nationalists claim that the Republican losses were twice as great as theirs and that the Catalan army had been dealt a shattering blow. The battle was remarkable for the intensity of aerial bombardments.

For a long period Nationalist planes daily poured hundreds of tons of explosives onto the enemy but the Republicans seemed the mountinous countryside with a phenomenal system of concrete fortifications which in effect were first class air raid shelters in which the Republicans found themselves comparatively safe against artillery or air bombardment.

The Nationalists at a cost of thousands of tons of explosives also learned this lesson and finally came to the conclusion that most effective weapon against man was man and that infantry, armed with bayonets and grenades could penetrate where artillery and aviation were helpless.

General Franco accordingly grouped most of the daring infantry into a new army corps under the youngest and most brilliant general. Subsequent fighting was reduced to a desperate hand-to-hand combat with little artillery and aerial assistance.—Reuter.

FRANCO-GERMAN
DECLARATIONMr. Chamberlain's
Visit To Paris

London, Nov. 20.
Two topics almost certain to be touched upon during the official visit of the Prime Minister, Mr. Chamberlain and Foreign Secretary, Lord Halifax to Paris this week are economic appeasement and the Far East, declares the "Sunday Times" diplomatic correspondent who adds that regarding the Far East Mr. Chamberlain's declaration in the House of Commons concerning British co-operation in the rehabilitation of China—which has not met a very favourable reception in the United States may well be thought by the French Ministers to call for some interpretation.—Reuter.

CHINESE THUGS
OPEN FIRETheatre Manager
Killed

Shanghai, Nov. 20.
Several armed Chinese thugs, who were refused entrance to a Chinese theatre in Japanese territory near the Settlement boundary yesterday evening, opened fire and killed the Chinese manager and wounded a woman patron and two men patrons.

Later in the evening, a Chinese Settlement policeman ran amuck and shot and wounded a Chinese man in Hongkew. He then crossed the Soochow Creek and shot and seriously wounded a Chinese police watchman in the central district. He is still at large.—Reuter.

MR. HEARST AND NEW JEWISH
NATIONAL STATE

San Simeon, Cal., Nov. 20.
The use of former German colonies in Africa, together with the Belgian Congo and Angola to form a new Jewish national State was advocated by Mr. Randolph Hearst in a broadcast to the nation.

Mr. Hearst suggested that this "magnificent heritage for persecuted Jews" should be a mandate jointly administered by the United States, France and Britain.

Mr. Hearst added that colonisation of Jews in Palestine had not proved successful.—Reuter.

ALLEGED MISUSE OF CHARITABLE FUNDS

Vienna, Nov. 20.
A large number of officials of the former Schuschnigg and Dollfuss governments have been arrested for alleged misuse of charitable funds raised by Dollfuss and Schuschnigg amounting to 100,000,000 schillings for political bribery. It is alleged they gave a monthly allowance of 20,000 schillings to Archduke Otto.—Reuter.

NAVY BEAT MIDDLESEX
BY ODD GOAL IN SEVENOne Of Best Football
Matches This Season

(By ROBIN)

ONE OF THE BIGGEST UPSETS and, incidentally, one of the best games of the season, was witnessed at Causeway Bay on Saturday when the Navy defeated Middlesex by the odd goal in seven in a Senior League football match.

The greatest surprise was that despite the absence of regular senior players the reserves gave splendid performances and, it can be said, Navy well deserved their win.

Armstrong, at right wing, was the Navy find in the forward line, his cross-kicking was almost to perfection, resulting in both the Navy's equaliser and winning goals. His speed and clever footwork gave the soldiers' defence an anxious time. Still, partnered by Bellis, proved almost impregnable, the former's play being splendid to watch. Dixon and Honeywell, in the half-back line, gave the forwards every support. Webster who filled the left half position was not in form. Betts, Hunt and Thorburn combined well in attack.

TWO RESERVES
The Middlesex, fielded a team with two reserves. Bright being still on the injured list. His position was filled by Wilkinson, who, after the commencement, took over left half. Tait was also absent. Britain filling the vacancy. The Middlesex forward line made use of every opportunity. Saw and Pearson did Trojan work, while Grogan was given more work on the right wing. Watson, at back, kept a watchful eye on Betts, who was constantly marked. The teams were:

NAVY: McAllister; Bellis, Still; Honeywell, Dixon, Webster; Armstrong, Thorburn, Marrill, Hunt and Betts.
MIDDLESEX: Jackson; Watson, Sheehan; Freshwater, Courtney, Wilkinson; Grogan, Simmonds, Pearson, Saw and Brittain.

JUNIOR SHIELD

At Causeway Bay, St. Joseph's drew with the 24th Heavy Battery, each side scoring two goals.

For the Battery, Minshall played a brilliant game in goal and Ward, who scored both goals for his side, was the outstanding player for the Saints.

Hill and Atkins scored for the gunners. Middlesex leading team of the Second Division, only just managed to beat the R.A.F., a Third Division team, by two goals to one on the Kowloon Football Club ground.

Middlesex scored first through Coomer, and R.A.F. equalised from a penalty awarded them. Coomer scored the winning goal for his side in the extra time given.

The game which was rather scrappy, was won by the civilians by the odd goal in five. Ho Ka-keung scored all three goals for the P.W.D. and Freer and Perdue reduced arrears for the soldiers. The Medical Corps were beaten by the Stonecutters W/T by two goals to one on the Kowloon Football Club ground.

Eastern defeated the Chinese Engineers by three goals to two, the winning goal being scored in the last few minutes of play. Although the Club scored first through Scott, the Artillery beat them by a margin of six goals to one.

SILKYLIGHT SMASHES ST. LEGER MARK AT ELEVENTH EXTRA MEETING

Mr. Moller Rides Pony To Great Victory

MR. TREVERTON'S FINE WIN ON BRUTUS

Taking it calmly and unfurriedly till the race was half over, without being in the slightest worried by a very hot pace set early on by another pony, Mr. R. B. Moller, riding his father's mount, Silky Light, Hongkong Derby winner, clipped 0.3.1 seconds off Liberty Bay's record of 2 minutes 22 1/2 for the 1 1/2 Miles St. Leger, raising for the pony honour of being the fourth to win the two classics. This new mark, however, is not recognised as a record as Silky Light was carrying only 155 lbs.

This, and Mr. G. Treverton's sensational win on his own pony, Brutus, were the main features of the eleventh extra meeting of the Hongkong Jockey Club held in ideal weather at Happy Valley Saturday. The popular Private Secretary to His Excellency the Governor brought his mount home from nowhere, as it were, to pay lucky punters the big dividend of $194.40.

His Excellency the Governor, accompanied by Lady Northcote, was present to applaud Mr. Treverton's win, having arrived early on.

Though Brutus' $194.40 was the only three-figure dividend of the day, punters who were on the mark had satisfactory returns and book form, as indicated by this, was proved winning in most of the events.

The Daily Double was won by the Valorous-National Guard combination, which paid $941.

Mr. Leslie Wade met with a mishap in the Newcastle Handicap when he was unseated from Cape York, but suffered no injury.

SHUM CHUN HANDICAP

Time (Mr. Chou) started the day off well for lucky punters when it beat Scene View (Mr. Pih) by a length and a half to pay $43.80 for a win.

Tampa Bay, generally expected, did not even place.

Laughing Girl, with Mr. S. C. Liang riding a very well-judged race, was a bare neck behind for third, to pay $15.

NEW BRIDGE HANDICAP

Mr. Benny Proulx made a good free on Vixen Tor to win this event, and Lucky Lad (Mr. Colson) and Snowy River (Mr. Hearne) followed in that order.

Up to the Rock the pony was lying back but she took the bend in a sweep, strode into the straight, and never looked back.

HONGKONG ST. LEGER

Silky Light, with Mr. R. B. Moller up, smashed Liberty Bay's record in the 1 1/2 mile St. Leger when it clocked 3 minutes 22 1/2 to beat Confusion Bay by a length and a half. The old time was 3.32.4/5.

Just in Time (Mr. Gregory) set the pace and held the lead for half the distance, but before the Rock was passed the second time the race was clearly resolving itself into a battle between the favourite and Confusion Bay (Mr. P. Y. T. Wei).

Up to this point the Bay candidate had obviously been carefully held. Rounding the bend it was "let loose" and for a space the 840 people who had backed it had good reason to hope.

Passing the Public Stand Confusion Bay seemed to lose stride and her chances of springing a surprise were gone.

Just in Time was many lengths behind for third.

SHUM CHUN HANDICAP

A large field here resulted in a surprise win for Wild Cat (Mr. H. C. Pih) up to pay $81.30. There was nothing very much else in this race.

Mr. Encarnacao brought Rose Evelyn home a short head behind the winner, while Laughing Buddha (Mr. F. F. Li) and Soldier of China (Mr. Peter Wei) dead-heated for last place.

CASTLE PEAK HANDICAP

The first leg of the daily double saw Valorous (Mr. Needa) beat Royal Highness (Mr. Tao) by a short head to pay the good dividend of $99.80.

Mr. Moller on Dekko extricated himself from a difficult position and did very well to place third, also by a short head.

Though favourite, Dekko paid $10.20 for a place.

NEWCASTLE HANDICAP

Mr. G. Treverton, riding his own mount, Brutus, sprung the surprise

TRADE IMPROVEMENT IN OCTOBER

Mr. Oliver Stanley Speaks On Co-operation

London, November 20.

In the course of some observations on the general trade position, the President of the Board of Trade, Mr. Oliver Stanley, at a dinner of the British Electrical Manufacturers' Association last night, said that after the exceptional industrial prosperity last year there had been, during the Spring, a decided recession, one cause of which was the economic collapse in United States.

Yet in August, he said, there were a number of signs, not connected with that cause which showed that the recession was flattening out. There came a crisis which had on most industries an immediate and paralysing effect. That crisis had passed, and October figures were a decided improvement upon any monthly figures for the present year.

There was no doubt that in many industries excessive stocks—built up in 1937 in anticipation of a boom which turned into recession—had been largely reduced and in some cases eliminated.

The position in the United States had shown a decided improvement in this country. Signs pointed to a potential recovery of not an inconsiderable kind in industries. It all depended, however, upon the recovery of confidence. No industry could prosper in a spirit of tension such as existed in October.

UNFAIR COMPETITION

Mr. Stanley referred to unification, regimentation and control of competing industries in other nations, and continued:

"I believe that even to-day man for man, firm for firm and industry for industry, we can stand up to any competition from any country in the world. But it is not the case to-day of firm against firm, but of firm against industry, and of firm against country."

"Very often, you are competing against the resources of 80,000,000 people, and no firm, however great its resources, can hope to do that. We do not want slavishly to adopt the technique of these countries. But surely we can find some intervening method, some form of voluntary co-operation, to give ourselves a chance of meeting competition of that kind on a fair basis."

What we would like to see is an arrangement between countries which would be fair both to them and to us, and would give both a chance of trade in neutral markets which would give a fair return."

—British Wireless

British Dominions And America

New York, Nov. 19

Following conclusion of the Anglo-American trade treaty, talks on agreements on similar lines have been begun between the United States and Australia, South Africa, New Zealand and the Argentine.

The outlook for an agreement with Australia is good.—Reuter.

GERMAN DISAPPOINTMENT

Berlin, Nov. 19

The Anglo-American Trade Treaty is regarded with great disappointment in German trade circles.

The Treaty appears to have had a detrimental effect on the Berlin Bourse, and despite favourable trade and industrial reports, the weakness continued to the close of the market.

Buyers were conspicuously absent, and quotations recorded falls up to four points.—Reuter.

ANTI-FASCIST VICTORY

Washington, Nov. 19

Some newspapers describe the Anglo-American and Canadian-American trade treaties as an anti-Fascist victory.

The "Washington Post" writes: "Some 80 per cent. of world trade is now controlled by liberal trading nations, and only 20 per cent. by the totalitarian states."—Reuter.

HUGE GERMAN LOAN

Berlin, Nov. 19

It is officially announced that a new Reich loan of 1,500,000,000 Reich marks, bearing interest at 4 per cent., will be floated for the "liquidation of the capital market."

SHARE MARKET REVIEW

Gold Mining Stocks Stay Steady

BY CAL RICKETT
Secretary, H.K. Sharebrokers' Association

There has been little change in the local market during the week. Prices are inclined to sag still further through lack of business.

The volume of business continues to dwindle and only a few sales have been recorded. Most stocks could be obtained below quotation although sellers displayed no eagerness to part with shares.

At the close of business there were enquiries for trams at $16½ with sales reported at this figure. China Lights (O) changed hands at $10½ with further enquiries at the same price.

Watsons were offering at $7.30 and Hotels had buyers at $5.30 and sellers at $6.40.

Gold mining stocks have remained steady. There was some recession in prices towards the end of the week, but at the close of business on Saturday losses, with one or two exceptions, have been fully made up.

Atoks at 27½ centavos are down 2½ centavos, and Benguet Consolidated have lost 40 centavos at $1.13. I.X.L. is 4 centavos down at 70 centavos and Suyos at 20 centavos have lost 2 centavos.

On the other hand San Mauricio show an advance of 18 centavos over the closing price for the previous week, at $1.186.

A quiet but steady market is reported from Manila.

CLOSED DOOR IN CHINA

Supineness Of Great Powers

The following letter signed "Z." appeared recently in "The Times":

As one of the many British who own property in Hongkong and Shanghai, I have watched with anxiety the development of events in the Far East.

"There is no misinterpretation of the attitude Japan is more and more clearly assuming towards the British Empire. The 'closed door' is plainly her ambition. But is she to be allowed to close it? The optimists have long held the field: China they say, is too vast for military conquest. However, Japanese arms have seemingly conquered it. Now they say Japan is not strong enough to hold her conquest down or rich enough to develop it. The wish seems father to the thought."

"Meanwhile Japan's attitude, to England, France, and America grows bolder every day. Are we to wait until all trade with China ends by order of Japan, until all foreign possessions are menaced with arms, before we intervene more vigorously than merely by making written protests? Or do we propose not to act at all, and surrender in silence, if need be, both our interests and prestige? Only the supineness of the three richest empires in the world makes the Japanese threat even possible."

"In the light of the recent past the democracies stand strongly in need of the tonic of initiative and united action. The effects of it in the Pacific lie in no possible doubt. Or have we really for the moment lost our nerve?"

MAIDEN VOYAGE OF MAURETANIA

A telegram from Cunard White Star, Ltd. announces that the maiden voyage of the new 34,000-ton liner, Mauretania, will be undertaken from Liverpool direct to New York on June 17, 1939.

It is interesting to note that the old Mauretania left on her maiden voyage from Liverpool on June 17, 1907.

On the return voyage, the liner will leave New York on July 1 for Cherbourg and Southampton.

The market opened 3/8 of a cent lower for all deliveries as compared with Friday's closing quotations. In response to easier advice from London and New York the market ruled quiet and lifeless after the opening. There was only a moderate demand for "actuals" from consuming countries, whilst very little activity was displayed by dealers and speculators, who preferred to adopt a waiting attitude. The market appears to be somewhat affected by the political situation, and the removal of these uncertainties would seem to be necessary before a resumption of the upward trend. Meanwhile the statistical position of Rubber continues to improve as is evidenced by reports of further business expansion, particularly in the American Motor-car industry. Towards the close of the session, the market turned steady on some trade buying which, coming on a narrow market caused prices to advance 1/8 cent for all deliveries.

Unofficially Malayan Rubber Exports for November are estimated at 37,000 tons as against 42,294 tons actually shipped during October.

Market steady.
The average forecast of last week's stocks of rubber in London and in Liverpool shows a decrease of 1,300 tons.

NEW YORK COTTON

Higher cables from abroad caused a higher opening on this market and prices further advanced on Trade and speculative buying. Later, however, the market declined on lower advices from Liverpool and on liquidation and profit-taking and finally eased further on hedge-selling by Western interests.

NEW YORK RUBBER

The market opened upward on optimistic cables from Malaya and London and firmed further on a good mixed trading demand and commission-house buying. Offerings from the primary markets were light and were well taken.

CHICAGO WHEAT

Prices declined under pressure of December liquidation, the relative easiness of the Liverpool market and enlarged Argentine crop. The rallying power of the market was feeble and interest was mainly concentrated on the long-side.

CHINESE TIN SHIPMENTS FALL

Shipments of tin from China have been seriously dislocated during the past two months. Only 650 tons a month, has been averaged, which is 300 tons below normal.

There will probably be a complete stoppage of Chinese tin deliveries throughout the world if Japan gains control of all the mines in southern China.

On the other hand, a much larger amount of Straits tin will be available, because Japan would not need to purchase from that source to any great extent.

At present Japan is going west for large quantities of Straits tin, partly because her present engagement means that heavy extra supplies are needed, and partly because she is unable to obtain the usual shipments of Chinese tin.

During October, for instance, shipments of Straits tin to Japan were 1540 tons, which compares with an average of 625 tons during the first six months of this year and a still lower figure before the outbreak of hostilities.

HARBOUR WORKS FOR COLOMBO

Colombo, Nov. 20

KWANGSI, SZECHWAN LINKED BY AIR SERVICE

Chungking, Nov. 18
The Eurasia Aviation Corporation has announced that an air mail and passenger service between Chengtu, Chungking and Kweilin will be inaugurated on November 21.

The first plane for the new service, it is announced, will depart from Chengtu at 9.30 a.m., arriving at Chungking at 11 a.m. From Chungking it will leave for Kweilin at 1.30 p.m., arriving at the latter place at 4.30 p.m.

On November 22, the plane will leave Kweilin for Kunming by way of Chungking.

The single trip fare from Chungking to Kweilin will be $250.—Central News.

U.S. PACIFIC AIR LOSSES

Details of the Pan-American Airways heavy losses on its trans-Pacific mail and passenger service were given recently in the course of a hearing before the Civil Aeronautics Authority in New York.

It was revealed that operations between San Francisco and Hongkong showed a loss of nearly $25,000 during 1937 and a loss of more than $74,000 during the first six months of 1938.

Since the disappearance of the Hawaiian Clipper on July 28 losses had been running at about $18,000 a month.

G. GOSANO HAS FIVE WICKETS FOR 15

Recreio Troupe "Craigengower"

In an all day friendly cricket match played at Happy Valley yesterday, Club de Recreio defeated Craigengower C.C. by six wickets, an outstanding feature of the match being the splendid bowling of G. Gosano, who captured 5 wickets for 15 runs. He also did well with the bat, scoring 36 runs. Detailed scores were:—

SOUTH CHINA "A" BEAT KWONG WAH 4-2

Losers' Forwards Erratic

After a very impressive start Kwong Wah fell away to lose to South China "A" by four goals to two in a Senior Division League football match played on the Kowloon F.C. ground yesterday.

In the opening period of the game, Kwong Wah's custodian Lee Kwok-kee was a disappointment and was not very much at home between the posts, being beaten by two easy goals. His handling was very erratic. In the second half, he brought off a number of fine saves.

South China were slow in settling down and it was not until Lai Shui-wing's opening goal, that they applied pressure.

Fung King-cheong and Lai Shui-wing combined well, the former making all the openings.

Pau Ka-ping had very little to do in goal.

PROMINENT FORWARDS

Chin Chi-fun and Cheuk Shek-kam were the most prominent in the forward line for Kwong Wah.

Kwong Wah forced the pace during the first ten minutes of the game, only to dilly-dally in front of South China's goal.

Lai Shui-wing, Fung King-cheong, (2) and Kwok Ying-kee netted for South China.

Kwong Wah replied through Chin Chi-fun who netted the best goal of the match.

After the interval Kwong Wah tried hard to reduce the arrears. Chin was fouled by Mak Shui-hon in the penalty area, and Chuk Shek-kam made no mistake with the spot kick.

The teams were: KWONG WAH:—Lee Kwok-kee; Hou Yung-shan, Chung Fai-lam; Wong Wah-gay, Fung Tse-isoong, Henry Young; Lam Fook-chuen, Law Wing-kui, Chin Chi-fun, Cheuk Shek-kam and Wong King-cheong.

S. CHINA "A":—Pau Ka-ping; Mak Shui-hon, Lee Tin-sang; Leung In-chen, Leung Wing-chui, Lee Kwok-wai, Tang Kwong-sum, Lai Shui-wing, Fung King-cheong, Kwok Ying-ki, Lee Fan-yeung.

ROYAL SCOTS WIN

In a preliminary round Junior Shield football match played at Sookunpoo yesterday, the Royal Scots defeated the 30th Royal Artillery by two goals to nil.

MacDonald opened the score in the first half. Symons, at right wing, added the second goal.

One of the most outstanding players was Woodfin, the R.A. goalkeeper.

The teams:— ROYAL SCOTS:—Salter, Ney-smith, Marshall, Fraser, Pluckrose, Peffer, Symons, Williamson, MacDonald, Callaghan and Gilroy.

30TH R.A.:—Woodfin; Guille, Todd; Yearling, Guy, Roberts; Tuckley, Halpin, Elliott, Cook and Flanders.

KWONG WAH THROUGH

Missing two penalty kicks robbed the Signals of entry into the next round of the Junior Shield in their match against Kwong Wah, which the latter won by the odd goal in three after a very clean and fast match played on the Kowloon ground yesterday.

Pitcher opened scoring for the Signals and Drumley missed from a spot-kick just before half-time.

Leung Bing-kam scored the equaliser for Kwong Wah from a penalty, and Lung Chi-lup added the second goal.

Perry missed a spot-kick and the final score remained at two goals to one in favour of Kwong Wah.

CAER CLARK CUP

Playing at King's Park on Saturday in the Caer Clark Cup League Hockey match, the "Y" Ladies defeated the Central British School XI by a score of two goals to nil. Miss H. Bockler scored both the points for the winning team in the first half of the game.

St. Andrews drew with the C. B. XI by two all when they met in the Caer Clark Cup League played in King's Park on Saturday. The C. B. A. scored through Mrs. White (2), while Miss Gittins (2) was responsible for the saints' points.

Playing in Kowloon, the Recreio "A" defeated the C. B. S. eleven by the odd goal in three. Miss C. Silva and Miss Mercedes da Rosa scored the points for the winning side.
